Block Whitener
With Oxidizing Agents

Features

- Specially formulated to remove tough stains from food processing and cutting surfaces.
- Uses a powerful mixture of chlorine bleach, caustic soda and detergents to remove tough stains like blood, grease, fat and protein deposits.
- Whitens all food preparation surfaces including wood and plastic.
- USDA A1 approved.
- NSF A1 listed.

Properties

Type................................................................. Mixture
Form.............................................................. Clear Liquid
Color............................................................. Pale Amber
Odor .............................................................. Chlorine
Weight per Gallon ............................................ 9.03 Lbs.
pH.................................................................... 11.7 - 12.7
pH 1%.................................................................... 9.0
Storage Stability.............................................. Min. 1 Year
Freeze/Thaw.................................................. Passes 3 Cycles
Phosphate (%P)................................................ None

* Properties are typical and subject to usual manufacturing tolerances